*It is anticipated that during the next five years approximately 6,000 additional kindergarten students will enroll in districts not currently offering a kindergarten program. Although these students are included in only the 1983-84 column, their actual entry will probably be distributed in an unpredictable pattern over the 1980-81 to 1983-84 years.

*It is anticipated that during the next five years approximately 2,695 additional kindergarten ADM will be counted in districts not currently offering a kindergarten program. Although these students are included in only the 1983-84 column, their actual entry will probably be distributed in an unpredictable pattern over the 1980-81 to 1983-84 years.
